Supplementary Notes for PART I

Gross Premium

“Gross Premium” shall mean the premium amount AIA International Limited receives over the life of a policy term on the basis as if the policyholder receives no discount or rebate from the Vitality status.

First Year Commission (FYC)

“First Year Commission” shall mean the commission paid to the Broker on the first year's premium as compensation for a newly sold policy, and the applicable commission rate of each product category is set out in Column A of the above compensation table.

Enhanced Commission

The Broker is entitled to an enhanced commission rate at an additional 10% on the respective rates as shown under Column A (e.g. an enhanced rate of 33% for Guaranteed Issue Whole Life with issue age 18 – 60 (original: 30%)), and this applies:-

- to all policy plans listed under category 1 (Critical Illness)*, 2 (Medical)*, 3 (Protection)*, 4 (Saving)*, 5 (Other Life)* or 6 (Vitality)* above;
- to all rider plans listed under Supplementary Contracts of category 1 (Critical Illness), 2 (Medical), 5 (Other Life) or 6 (Vitality), if such rider is issued and attached to any policy plan listed under category 1 (Critical Illness)*, 2 (Medical)*, 3 (Protection)*, 4 (Saving)*, or 5 (Other Life)* or 6 (Vitality)*; and
- if and only if the Company receives payment of first year annual premium in full no later than 14 days from its underwriting approval.

*Save and except those plans marked with a symbol (^) which are excluded.

Override Commission (OR)

It refers to the extra commission paid on the total sum of Commission on Gross Premium of the corresponding policy year and Enhanced Commission, if any.

No commission is payable to the Broker on:-

- (a) the premium (or any part thereof) so waived by the Company pursuant to the terms of the policy and/or its riders; and
- (b) any extra premium charged by the Company due to temporary loading.

First Year Commission (FYC) Adjustment applies. For details of FYC adjustment rules, please refer to "FYC Adjustment Guidelines" or subsequent updated document(s) issued by the Company from time to time. A copy of FYC adjustment rules can be found in IFA & Broker Corner.

PART II – QUALITY BONUS^{#4}

Quality bonus is payable annually as a percentage of earned First Year Commission and Enhanced Commission^{#6}, based on the Persistency Rate^{#5} as of March of the following year and according to the below scale. Quality Bonus is only applicable to products listed in Product Categories 1 to 6, namely CI, ME, PR, SA, NT, VT.

Persistency Rate ^{#5}	Bonus Rate % of (First Year Commission & Enhanced Commission) ^{#6}
95% to 100%	10%
90% to <95%	7.5%
85% to <90%	5%
0% to < 85%	0%

^{#4}To entitle the Quality Bonus, the Broker Contract status must be active with the Company at the time of payment. The bonus will be automatically written off if the Broker Contract is terminated at the time of payment.

^{#5} Persistency Rate refers to LIMRA 19-month persistency ratio on a past 12-month basis by annualized premium.

^{#6} Quality Bonus will be payable in April every year for the earned First Year Commission and Enhanced Commission for the period of 1 January to 31 December of last year. For the avoidance of doubt, Override Commission shall be excluded in the computation of Quality Bonus.

SCHEDULE OF COMMISSIONS FOR NON TREASURE SERIES

PART III- VITALITY BONUS

Vitality Bonus	On First Membership Year	On 2nd Membership Year and Onward
On Vitality membership	HK$120	N/A

Supplementary Notes for PART III

1. Vitality membership is not itself an insurance product and cannot be applied on standalone basis. It must be applied together with AIA Vitality Series product.
2. Vitality bonus will only be payable after the expiry of the cooling off period of the applicable AIA Vitality Series product and is only payable once in a lifetime per life insured.
3. For the avoidance of doubt, no Vitality bonus shall be payable if the life insured has obtained Vitality membership at the time of the application of any AIA Vitality Series product (irrespective of the status of the Vitality membership s/he has or may have attained).

Remarks:

1. At any point in time, the total commission paid or payable (which includes all other remuneration in connection with the placement of policy, if any) since policy issue must not exceed total premium received by the Company since policy issue.
2. The Company shall withhold such amount or portion (if any) of the commissions which exceed the total amount of premium received by it ("Excess Commission").
3. Additional premium subsequently received by the Company will trigger release to the Broker of an equivalent amount (or a lesser sum, as the case may be) of the Excess Commission so withheld (if any), provided always that the rule under paragraph (1) hereof must be observed.
4. The OR% in Column B & D are subject to the Company's regular review from time to time.
5. The OR% in Column B & D of a policy is determined at the time of policy issue and the same rate will thereafter apply to that policy.

The above Schedule of Commissions is subject to discontinuance or change on notice to the Broker in writing by the Company, and subject to the rules aforesaid, such discontinuance or change shall apply only to policy(ies) issued after the effective date of such notice is given.
