In relation to any prepaid premium or dump-in (either for basic plan and/or for riders) for a particular policy year, the Broker will not be entitled to any Basic Commission unless and until BOC Life has approved and debited the prepaid premium or dump-in for the premium due. In other words, the Broker is only entitled to Basic Commission on the part of the prepaid premium or dump-in that has been approved and debited by BOC Life.

In relation to any premium loading, the Broker shall be entitled to Basic Commission calculated according to the relevant commission rates, as percentage of the premium loading actually received by BOC Life while this Agreement is in force as set out above. Premium loading refers to an amount adds to the basic premium to be payable by the life insured as determined by BOC Life based on factors including but not limited to substandard health, occupation and residence of the life insured.
