Overriding Commission

Subject to Part C of this Schedule, the Broker shall be entitled to an overriding commission ("Overriding Commission") determined as follows:

- a) For Individual Life Plan I, Individual Life Plan II, Individual Life Plan III, Individual Critical Illness Plans and Individual Medical Plans an Overriding Commission of 80% of the amount of first year commission earned by the Broker during the month concerned will be paid to the Broker on the dates as set out in the latest broker payment schedule as may be amended by the Company from time to time, subject to the provisions of Part C below.
- b) For Individual Life Plan IV, an Overriding Commission of 61.62% of the amount of first year commission earned by the Broker during the month concerned will be paid to the Broker on the dates as set out in the latest broker payment schedule as may be amended by the Company from time to time, subject to the provisions of Part C below.
- c) For Individual Life Plan V, an Overriding Commission of 80% of the amount of first year commission earned by the Broker during the month concerned will be paid to the Broker on the dates as set out in the latest broker payment schedule as may be amended by the Company from time to time, subject to the provisions of Part C below.
- d) For Individual Life Plan VI, an Overriding Commission of 35% of the amount of first year commission earned by the Broker during the month concerned will be paid to the Broker on the dates as set out in the latest broker payment schedule as may be amended by the Company from time to time, subject to the provisions of Part C below.
- e) For Deferred Annuity Plans I, an Overriding Commission of 100% of the amount of first year commission earned by the Broker during the month concerned will be paid to the Broker on the dates as set out in the latest broker payment schedule as may be amended by the Company from time to time, subject to the provisions of Part C below.
- f) For Term Life Plans I, an Overriding Commission of 100% of the amount of first year commission earned by the Broker during the month concerned will be paid to the Broker on the dates as set out in the latest broker payment schedule as may be amended by the Company from time to time, subject to the provisions of Part C below.

- g) For Term Critical Illness Plans I, an Overriding Commission of 100% of the amount of first year commission earned by the Broker during the month concerned will be paid to the Broker on the dates as set out in the latest broker payment schedule as may be amended by the Company from time to time, subject to the provisions of Part C below.

B. Payment

1. Subject to clause 2 of Part C,
 - a) where the aggregate sum of the Product Commission and the Overriding Commission payable to the Broker pursuant to Parts A and B of this Schedule in respect of a policy exceeds 100% of the total first year premium received by the Company for such policy, any excess over such 100% shall be withheld by the Company and released only after the premium for the first 13 months of the policy has been received by the Company, subject to the regulatory requirement at the time of payment;
 - b) the cumulative commissions paid to the Broker for a policy shall at no time be higher than the cumulative premiums received by the Company in respect of such policy;
 - c) for the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not have any liability to pay to the Broker and the Broker shall not have any claim against the Company for any Product Commission or Overriding Commission in respect of a policy if payment of the same would result in the cumulative commissions exceeding 100% of the total premium received by the Company for such policy; and
 - d) the balance of the withheld commissions, if any, shall be released in the next month or thereafter provided that the cumulative premiums received by the Company will be higher than the cumulative commissions paid to the Broker immediately after the time of the payment.
2. Notwithstanding clause 1 of Part C, any Overriding Commission withheld will be released to the Broker if the 19-months LIMRA type persistency rate (to be calculated and determined in accordance with provided document) is 85% or higher.

C. Claw-back Provisions

1. If a new benefit ("New Benefit") is issued on the life of a person whose life benefit has been effective previously under a policy issued by the Company ("Previous Benefit") and the Previous Benefit has been inforced for less than 6 years (i.e. receipt of premiums for the Previous Benefit by the Company for less than 6 years), then if:
 - a) within one (1) year prior to or one (1) year following the submission date of the New Benefit, any Previous Benefit which is within the same benefit category as the New Benefit is surrendered for cash or becomes a paid-up policy or is allowed to lapse, or the Previous Benefit (under the same policy or a new policy) is reduced; or

- b) any part of the premium of the New Benefit is paid by an allowance for the cancellation of the Previous Benefit which is within the same benefit category as the New Benefit whether paid-up or otherwise, the Broker shall repay the full amount of the Clawback First Year Commission (as defined hereinunder) and Clawback AFYP (as defined hereinunder) received by the Broker to the Company on demand regardless of the writing channel.

“Clawback First Year Commission” means the lesser amount of the first year commission paid on the Previous Benefit and the first year commission of the New Benefit.

“Clawback AFYP” means for production calculation, the lesser of the annualized first year premium (“AFYP”) received on the Previous Benefit and the AFYP of the New Benefit. Such an amount shall be charged to the account of the Broker of the new policy on earned basis during the Broker’s appointment and within one (1) year from termination of the Broker Agreement.

2. The Broker shall repay to the Company upon demand any and all money, remuneration, commission and / or bonus paid by the Company to the Broker if such money, remuneration, commission and / or bonus was earned by the Broker in connection with activities involving mis-selling, aggressive selling, fraud, money laundering, dishonesty and / or crime(s). A conviction by any court and / or a decision by relevant governmental or regulatory authorities shall be evidence of proven mis-selling, aggressive selling, fraud, money laundering, dishonesty and /or commission of a crime.
3. Any amount that remains unpaid under the Clawback Provisions for more than 30 days after demand by the Company shall accrue interest at the rate of 1% per day until it is fully paid.
4. The Broker shall indemnify and hold the Company harmless against any loss and / or damages suffered by the Company in connection with activities involving mis-selling, aggressive selling, fraud, money laundering, dishonesty and / or crime committed by the Broker.
5. The provisions under Part D of this Schedule shall survive the termination of the Broker Agreement.

D. Amendment

1. Subject to periodic review, the Company may at any time revise, supplement or replace of this remuneration schedule in its absolute discretion in any way by prior notice in writing to the Broker.
