You hereby agree with and undertake to the Company as follows.

1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1 In this letter agreement, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) "Affiliate" of any specified person means any other person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with such specified person; "control" (and its related terms) herein means, when used with respect to any specified person, the power to direct the management and policies of such person, directly or indirectly, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.
- (b) "Confidential Information" means, in relation to a party hereto:

all information in whatever form (including in written, oral, visual or electronic form) relating to the existence, status or progress of the Engagement including the existence and contents of this letter agreement and the fact that discussions, negotiations and offers may be taking place in relation to the Engagement.
- (c) "Representatives" means, in relation to a party, its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, consultants, potential investors/financing sources, representatives and advisors (including legal and other technical advisors);
- (d) references to a "person" includes any individual, partnership, body corporate, corporation sole or aggregate, state or agency of a state, and any unincorporated association or organisation, in each case whether or not having separate legal personality; and
- (e) general words shall not be given a restrictive meaning because they are followed by words which are particular examples of the acts, matters or things covered by the general words and the words "includes" and "including" shall be construed without limitation.

2. DUTY OF CONFIDENTIALITY

2.1 Each party will hold the Confidential Information relating to the other party in strict confidence and will not disclose, reproduce or distribute such Confidential Information in whole or in part, directly or indirectly (or permit any of the foregoing) to any persons, other than to its Representatives to the extent that such disclosure, reproduction or distribution is made in connection with the Engagement.

- 2.2 Neither party nor any of its Representatives will, without the prior written consent of the other party, use any Confidential Information of the other party for any purpose other than the Engagement.
- 2.3 Each party will take all reasonable steps to ensure that proper and secure storage is provided for all Confidential Information relating to the other party in order to protect against theft or unauthorised access and to promptly inform the other party if it becomes aware or reasonably suspects that Confidential Information relating to the other party has been disclosed to or has come into the possession of any unauthorised person.
- 2.4 Each party shall ensure that each of its Representatives is informed of the terms of this letter agreement and shall procure that each of its Representatives adheres to the terms of this letter agreement as if it had entered into this letter agreement in its place (notwithstanding that it is not a party hereto) and each party will be responsible to the extent that any of its Representatives does not do so.

3. PERMITTED DISCLOSURE

- 3.1 The undertakings in paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 will not apply to Confidential Information relating to a party which the other party can establish:

 - (c) is independently developed by the receiving party; or
 - (d) the other party or one of its Representatives found out from a source not connected with the first party or any of its Representatives and which is not under any obligation of confidence in respect of that information.

4. RETURN OR DESTRUCTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Where either party determines that it does not wish to terminate the Engagement or where either party, in its sole discretion, at any time, so demands in writing, each party and each of its respective Representatives will promptly destroy or return to the other party (at its sole election) any Confidential Information relating to the other party; provided that the receiving party may retain copies of the Confidential Information in its archives for the purpose of determining its continuing obligations under this letter agreement or pursuant to its bona fide record retention or data backup policies (provided further that any access to such records are restricted to a need-to-know basis only).

- 5.2 Neither party will be obliged to accept, review or consider any proposal or offer that the other party submits.

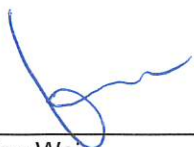

- 5.3 Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that we each may have, we each acknowledge and agree that a person with rights under this letter agreement may be irreparably harmed by any breach of its terms and that damages alone may not be an adequate remedy. Accordingly, a person bringing a claim under this letter agreement shall be entitled to seek remedies of injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief for any threatened or actual breach of the terms of this letter agreement.
- 5.4 Neither party may assign this letter agreement or any or its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other party.
